Students from mainly rural areas used to get admission in this College. To developed academic skills of the students, to introduce them to higher education policy. These students are not aware of different programs in higher education System, career opportunities in higher education policy, as well as different ways of achieving academic excellence. They have immense potential but they are not aware of it. Hence somebody has to take initiative to find out this potential of the students. These students are completely ignorant about various examinations and lack of information about the preparation to qualify the examinations. It is the need of time to guide them properly. It will help them to reach towards their dreams.

A mentor can gives valuable advice to the mentee in his difficulties. He can offer a valuable insight to students. He can be the guide and ideas and their by help his mentee decide the best course of action in difficult situations. Mentor is an individual with expertise. Hence he can helps in development of mentees career. Mentor often has two primary functions like career guidance and balancing his life in any difficult situation. The students participating in this scheme get definite form of guidance and proper knowledge. It makes it easier for them to make career decision. This will develop the personality of the students

5. Evidence of Success :

This scheme had created awareness among students. Due to the conduction of this scheme most of the students are attached to college. This attachment has been increased communication between teacher and students. Attendance of the students in the college has been increased. Progress of the students has been maintained. Progress of the students in all possible directions is carried out through this scheme.

KALA WANIJYA MAHILA MAHAVIDYALAYA, BALLARPUR6. Problems Encountered & Resources Required :

Considering the strength of students and the available human resource teacher - student ratio is not proportionate enough to implement the practice efficiently. This causes the communication between students and teacher. Besides, the number of the needy students is increasing, consequently, available fund falls short to satisfy their demands. Firstly the practice helps to minimize dropout rate and overcome communication gap. It has scope for personal attention in today's scenario of overcrowded classes. Further, personal counseling to students disciplines them and creates healthy atmosphere for teaching and learning.
